8 SATURDAY
Chamber Music Festival: Part II
Spotlight on Music of Our Time. 30 years ago, if one were to invite you to a chamber music festival called Music of Our Time, you might run for the nearest exit. Today is a totally different matter. The styles and the return of tonality make this a dynamic time to be making music. Concerts begin at 10:00 and continue on through the day with works by György Ligeti, John Adams, Philip Glass, Witold Lutosławski, Nikolai Kapustin, Shostakovich, our own Pierre Jalbert and many more.

The 8:00 concert will be the last opportunity to hear the Rolston String Quartet before they leave their residency at the Shepherd School. Their program includes the Beethoven String Quartet in D Major, Op. 18, No. 3, Schumann String Quartet in A Major, Op. 41, No. 3 and the Beethoven Quintet in C Major, Op. 29 with their mentor and violist James Dunham as guest artist. Beginning April 3, the performance times will be available on the Shepherd School website: http://music.rice.edu, or by calling 713-348-8008. Admission is free and no tickets are required.
