

The Shepherd School of Music Transfer Acknowledgement Form

The National Association of Schools of Music Code of Ethics states:

“A transferring student who has not completed a degree program can be considered eligible for financial assistance during the first term of enrollment in the new institution only if the music executive of the school from which the student is transferring specifically approves... Approval is to be sought prior to the offering of the financial award by the institution to which the student may transfer...”

Although the Shepherd School of Music is not a member of NASM, we make every effort to comply with its policies. Financial assistance can be considered, discussed, or offered only after the section below has been completed and signed by the music executive of the institution in which the student is currently enrolled.

The student below is applying to Rice University’s Shepherd School of Music and wishes to be considered for financial aid.
